English Vocabulary Exercise with answers | Ideas and opinions

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 2

In the following sentences two of the words can be used. Choose the right word:

1. Well, perhaps you should give yourself a few days to think [ ] our offer before you make a decision.

2. Let's call a taxi. Then we can all have a drink. What do you [ ]?

> I [ ] we could. But won't a taxi be very expensive?

No, [ ]. It's only a few miles.

3. I've just had [ ]. Why don't we drive to the coast?

4. I'm sorry. I didn't [ ] that you were waiting for me.

5. I'm amazed that Peter and Liz are going out together. I just can't [ ] them together.

6. Don't make excuses. You hit the car in from because you [ ].

7. I'll never finish this report. I keep [ ].

8. Would you turn that music down, please? I [ ].

ANSWERS

1. Well, perhaps you should give yourself a few days to think about our offer before you make a decision.
2. Let's call a taxi. Then we can all have a drink. What do you think?
> I guess we could. But won't a taxi be very expensive?
No, I doubt it. It's only a few miles.
3. I've just had an idea. Why don't we drive to the coast?
4. I'm sorry. I didn't realise that you were waiting for me.
5. I'm amazed that Peter and Liz are going out together. I just can't picture them together.
6. Don't make excuses. You hit the car in from because you were daydreaming.
7. I'll never finish this report. I keep getting distracted.
8. Would you turn that music down, please? I can't hear myself think.

©Englishfornoobs.com