

English conversation: Talking about possibilities

TALKING ABOUT POSSIBILITIES

It may / might / could snow tomorrow.

I suppose it will snow tomorrow.

I won't be surprised if it snows tomorrow.

In all probability, it will snow.

It's probably going to snow tomorrow.

It's quite likely it will snow.

Maybe it will snow tomorrow.

Perhaps it's going to snow tomorrow.

Possibly, it's going to snow tomorrow.

The odds are it will snow tomorrow.

There's a chance it will snow.

There's a fifty-fifty chance of snow.

There's a good chance it will snow.