

Guessing and Estimating in English: useful phrases

GUESSING AND ESTIMATING

As arranged.

As planned.

Based upon...

Guess what!

I consider it my duty to...

I consider it pointless to... / I see no point in...

I consider that...

I consider/deem it necessary to...

I don't see the point of...

I have great respect/regard/esteem for...

I have little respect/regard for...

In due course.

it doesn't bode well for...

It doesn't look too promising. / Things don't look too good.

It looks promising.

It would be pointless to...

It would be risky to...

It wouldn't be much use ... (+v-ing)

It wouldn't be much use to me.

It's about time...

That reminds me that...

That's most encouraging.

There is a reason to believe that...

There is every reason / a great reason to believe that

There is not much time left.

There's a right time for everything.

There's every indication that...

There's no point in... / There's little point in... / It's no use...

There's no point. / It's no use. / It's useless.

There's no time to lose / waste.

This gives me to understand that...

Time is short.

We can anticipate...

What must we understand from... ?

What should we expect from... ?

What would be the point of (+v-ing) ? / What use would it be to... ?

What's the point of... ?

Within a reasonable time.

You know what to expect.

You may not think it but...