

Possessive pronouns | Exercises with answers

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 1

Replace the bold nominal groups with possessive pronouns:

Ex: This book belong to my girlfriend. It's her book. → This book belong to my girlfriend. It's hers.

1. Your sister is smarter than my sister. →
2. Where is your bike? I can only see Jim's. →
3. Look, here is my brother, where is your brother? →
4. Tina does not like my cake. She thinks her cake is much better. →
5. I think your suit is nicer than his suit. →
6. Paul has lost his phone, you could lend him your phone. →
7. I can't see their car, but I can see Gina's car. →
8. Don't you think this party is not as exciting as our party? →
9. Our house is huge, what about the Smiths'? →
10. Was it Paul's car or was it Maggie's? →
11. My friend Sarah has met my mother, but I haven't met her mother yet. →
12. If you think my room is a mess, you should see his room. →
13. You do your work and I'll do my work. →
14. Whose is this bottle? Is it your bottle or my bottle? → /
15. If you haven't got an umbrella, Samantha will lend you one of her umbrellas. →

ANSWERS

1. mine
2. his
3. yours
4. hers
5. his
6. yours
7. hers
8. ours
9. theirs
10. hers
11. hers
12. his
13. mine
14. yours / mine
15. hers