

Relative pronouns | Exercises with answers

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 3

Choose between who, whose, which and where:

1. My sister, just moved in with me, is looking for a boyfriend.
2. I never met someone didn't like chocolate.
3. That is the road leads to the railway station.
4. That is the girl parents got divorced last year.
5. This is the town I live.
6. Kenny, wife just had a baby, will not be at work for a few weeks.
7. My mother, was born in France, has always been a great cook.
8. My doctor, is 65, has just retired.
9. We had breakfast, is my favourite meal.
10. They caught the lady killed her husband.

ANSWERS

1. My sister, who just moved in with me, is looking for a boyfriend.
2. I never met someone who didn't like chocolate.
3. That is the road which leads to the railway station.
4. That is the girl whose parents got divorced last year.
5. This is the town where I live.
6. Kenny, whose wife just had a baby, will not be at work for a few weeks.
7. My mother, who was born in France, has always been a great cook.
8. My doctor, who is 65, has just retired.
9. We had breakfast, which is my favourite meal.
10. They caught the lady who killed her husband.