

Talking about statistics / presenting a graph in English

---

TALKING ABOUT STATISTICS / PRESENTING A GRAPH

The crime rate rose.

A slow but steady recovery for the Japanese economy is expected.

A steep drop in price occurred in 2006 when volumes of imports dropped dramatically.

China is the only major auto market still growing despite the global economic slowdown.

Despite a slight decline in the last few years, the number of motor vehicle thefts in Canada remains high.

Price fluctuations may affect the Company's results.

Rates have plateaued in the last 5 years.

The crime rate dropped.

The EESC calls for a massive reduction of oil demand in Europe.

the gradual rise in the proportion of older people is expected to intensify

The sharp increase in food prices threatens to become a grave crisis.

The unemployment rate went up.

The world prices of coffee and tea have plummeted during the last decade.

There was a slight decrease in their income.

There was a spike in demand.

We reached a peak in 1984 in terms of agricultural production.