English Vocabulary Exercises | Feelings and Emotions

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 2

Match the situations with the following feelings :
I'm really frightened of them/ I felt so proud/ We were very worried/I was so bored/ I'm so relieved/She was so surprised/ I feel so ashamed/ I was quite shocked by it.

1. I can't believe I got so drunk. →
2. I didn't expect the film to be so violent. →
3. Why didn't you phone to say you'd be late? →
4. There's a huge spider in the bath! →
5. They talked about computers all evening. →
6. I got the results back from the hospital today. They're negative, thank goodness! →
7. When my daughter became a doctor, I was really pleased. →
8. She came home to find we'd organised a big party for her. →

ANSWERS

1. I can't believe I got so drunk. → I feel so ashamed.
2. I didn't expect the film to be so violent. → I was quite shocked by it.
3. Why didn't you phone to say you'd be late? → We were very worried.
4. There's a huge spider in the bath! → I'm really frightened of them.
5. They talked about computers all evening. → I was so bored.
6. I got the results back from the hospital today. They're negative, thank goodness! → I'm so relieved.
7. When my daughter became a doctor, I was really pleased. → I felt so proud.
8. She came home to find we'd organised a big party for her. → She was so surprised.

©Englishfornoobs.com