

English Vocabulary Exercises | Personality

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 3

Complete the sentences with the appropriate expressions:

far too modest/far too sensible/much too shy/much too proud/ much too loyal/far too honest.

1. I think Mark took some money from my bag while we were out.

> No, he's to do a thing like that.

2. I'm still waiting for Lisa to say sorry for sending that fax to the wrong address.

> You'll wait a long time! Lisa's to admit anything's her fault.

3. Jenny left a window open when she went out this morning. Anybody could've got in.

> Are you sure it was Jenny. She's to do anything like that.

4. Apparently, Amy asked Tom if he'd like to go out tomorrow night.

> I don't believe you. She's to ask a boy out!

5. Julie got the highest mark in the class, but she didn't say a word.

> No, she wouldn't. She's to say anything about it.

6. I thought Martin was a good friend but he's been telling everybody that I'm boring.

> Are you sure? Martin's to say something like that behind your back.

ANSWERS

1. I think Mark took some money from my bag while we were out.

> No, he's far too honest to do a thing like that.

2. I'm still waiting for Lisa to say sorry for sending that fax to the wrong address.

> You'll wait a long time! Lisa's much too proud to admit anything's her fault.

3. Jenny left a window open when she went out this morning. Anybody could've got in.

> Are you sure it was Jenny. She's far too sensible to do anything like that.

4. Apparently, Amy asked Tom if he'd like to go out tomorrow night.

> I don't believe you. She's much too shy to ask a boy out!

5. Julie got the highest mark in the class, but she didn't say a word.

> No, she wouldn't. She's far too modest to say anything about it.

6. I thought Martin was a good friend but he's been telling everybody that I'm boring.

> Are you sure? Martin's much too loyal to say something like that behind your back.