

English Vocabulary Exercise with answers | Ideas and opinions

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 2

In the following sentences two of the words can be used. Choose the right word:

1. Well, perhaps you should give yourself a few days to think about/reckon our offer before you make a decision.
2. Let's call a taxi. Then we can all have a drink. What do you think/consider ?
- > I suggest/guess we could. But won't a taxi be very expensive?
No, I suppose not/I doubt it . It's only a few miles.
3. I've just had an idea/a consideration . Why don't we drive to the coast?
4. I'm sorry. I didn't realise/consider that you were waiting for me.
5. I'm amazed that Peter and Liz are going out together. I just can't realise/picture them together.
6. Don't make excuses. You hit the car in from because you were daydreaming/weren't realising .
7. I'll never finish this report. I keep getting distracted/losing my mind .
8. Would you turn that music down, please? I can't imagine/can't hear myself think .

ANSWERS

1. Well, perhaps you should give yourself a few days to think about our offer before you make a decision.
2. Let's call a taxi. Then we can all have a drink. What do you think?
- > I guess we could. But won't a taxi be very expensive?
No, I doubt it. It's only a few miles.
3. I've just had an idea. Why don't we drive to the coast?
4. I'm sorry. I didn't realise that you were waiting for me.
5. I'm amazed that Peter and Liz are going out together. I just can't picture them together.
6. Don't make excuses. You hit the car in from because you were daydreaming.
7. I'll never finish this report. I keep getting distracted.
8. Would you turn that music down, please? I can't hear myself think.