

Vocabulary Exercises with answers | Time

Answers are at the bottom of the page.

Exercise 5

Complete the sentences with the following words:

- until | while | for | since | yet | just | by | during

- I've been waiting here ages. Where have you been?
 - I'll try and visit you sometime the summer holidays.
 - I got annoyed because they kept talking I was trying to watch the film.
 - If we don't get this finished Friday, we'll have to work at the weekend.
 - She's always the last one to leave the office. She's here seven o'clock some evenings.
 - I don't want a cup of tea, thanks. I've had one.
 - Don't tell me what happens in the film. I haven't seen it .
 - It's nearly three months I last saw Alison. I must give her a call.
-

ANSWERS

- I've been waiting here for ages. Where have you been?
- I'll try and visit you sometime during the summer holidays.
- I got annoyed because they kept talking while I was trying to watch the film.
- If we don't get this finished by Friday, we'll have to work at the weekend.
- She's always the last one to leave the office. She's here until seven o'clock some evenings.
- I don't want a cup of tea, thanks. I've just had one.
- Don't tell me what happens in the film. I haven't seen it yet.
- It's nearly three months since I last saw Alison. I must give her a call.